DONNY HOLLEY, et al.,

Defendants.

DEBRA P. HACKETT, CLK.
U.S. DISTRICT COURT
MIDDLE DISTRICT ALA

Case No. 3:07cv952-MHT

NOTICE OF REMOVAL

COME NOW Defendants, State Farm Fire and Casualty Company (hereinafter "State Farm Fire") and Donny Holley (hereinafter "Holley") and give notice of removal of the above-styled action from the Circuit Court of Chambers County, Alabama, to the United States District Court for the Middle District of Alabama, Eastern Division. As grounds for the removal of this action, Defendants aver the following:

1. Upon information and belief Plaintiff, Wyatt Finch, Jr., was and is a citizen of the State of Alabama residing in Chambers County, Alabama.
2. Defendant State Farm Fire and Casualty Company is a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of Illinois, with its principal place of business in the State of Illinois. Defendant State Farm Fire is a citizen of the State of Illinois.

3. Defendant Donny Holley is a citizen of the State of Alabama residing in Chambers County, Alabama. Defendants, however, contend that Holley was fraudulently joined to this action. The Complaint filed by Plaintiff alleges claims for breach of contract and bad faith against State Farm and negligent and wanton failure to procure insurance against Holley. Plaintiff has demanded compensatory and punitive damages. Defendants have filed contemporaneously with this Notice of Removal, a motion to dismiss filed by Defendant Donny Holley for failure to state a claim pursuant to FED. R. CIV. P. 12(b)(6). A copy of said motion is incorporated herein by reference as Exhibit "A." Defendant Holley should be dismissed as a matter of law, therefore maintaining the requirement of diversity of citizenship pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1441. The Eleventh Circuit has recognized that a defendant has been fraudulently joined if there is no possibility the plaintiff can prove any cause of action against the resident under prevailing law. Cabalceta v. Standard Fruit Co., 883 F. 2d 1553, 1556 (11th Cir. 1989); Insigna v. LaBella, 845 F. 2d 249, 254 (11th Cir. 1989). The determination of whether the resident defendant has been fraudulently joined is made based upon the plaintiff's pleadings at the time of removal. Id.; see also Pullman Co. v. Jenkins, 305 U.S. 534 537; 59 S.Ct. 347, 359;

83 L.Ed. 334 (1939). The District Court can consider submitted affidavits, deposition transcripts and other evidence to determine whether fraudulent joinder has occurred. Coker v. Amoco Oil. Co., 709 F. 2d 1433, 1440 (11th Cir. 1983).

4. Defendant Holley was served on September 24, 2007, and State Farm Fire was served on September 25, 2007. Plaintiff's Complaint alleges claims for breach of contract and bad faith against State Farm and negligent and wanton failure to procure insurance against Donny Holley. A copy of the Complaint is attached hereto as Exhibit "B."

5. Other than the filing of the Complaint identified as Exhibit "B," and the discovery that was served with the Complaint, a copy of which forms composite Exhibit "C," no other proceedings have taken place in state court as to the subject matter of Exhibit "B."

6. This action is subject to removal on the basis of diversity of citizenship in that Plaintiff was and is a resident and citizen of the State of Alabama and Defendant State Farm Fire and Casualty Company is a corporation with its principal place of business in the State of Illinois.

7. Defendants maintain that removal of the action initiated by Plaintiff is justified. This is a separate and independent claim which would be removable on its own right. See Motor Vehicle Cas. Co. v. Russian River County Sanitation Dist., 538

F. Supp. 488 (D.C. Cal. 1981). The action being removed is removable due to diversity based on 28 U.S.C. § 1441 (a).

8. In addition to diversity of citizenship among the real and proper parties to this cause, this Court has jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. § 1332, and removal is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1441, in that there is a sufficient basis that the jurisdictional amount in controversy could possibly be met. In his Complaint, Plaintiff seeks an undetermined amount in damages, however, Plaintiff alleges State Farm has failed and/or refused to pay for the damage that was incurred by wind and hail at paragraph 11 of the Complaint. Though not specifically addressing a specified amount in the Complaint, it is clear that Plaintiff is seeking benefits under his policy of insurance, mental anguish and punitive damages.

9. In De Aguilar v. Boeing Co., 11 F. 3d 55 (5th Cir. 1993), the court held that “[w]hen the plaintiff’s complaint does not allege a specific amount of damages, the removing defendant must prove by a preponderance of the evidence that the amount in controversy exceeds $50,000 [$75,000]. Id. at 58. (emphasis added) (citations omitted). In determining whether the requisite amount in controversy exists to support federal jurisdiction, it is well settled that “the defendant bears the burden, albeit the light burden, of showing that the required amount is in controversy. To do so, defendants must show only that it does not appear to a legal certainty that the claim is for less than the jurisdictional amount.” Locklear v. State Farm Mut. Automobile Ins. Co., 742 F. Supp. 679, 680 (S.D. Ga. 1989 (citing St. Paul mercury Indem. Co. v. Red Cab Co., 303 U.S. 283 (1938))). (emphasis added)., 5 F. 3d 81, 84 (5th Cir. 1993). This analysis comports with the preponderance of evidence standard put forth in De Agilar, supra.

10. Plaintiff’s Complaint is “indeterminate” because Plaintiff does not set forth the amount of a compensatory damage claim and the issue of removal is determined on the basis of the Complaint before the court at the time of the removal. Cabalceta v. Standard Fruit Co., 883 F. 2d 1553, 1561 (11th Cir. 1989). “An indeterminate complaint does not show that the case is not removable. It simply does not comment on federal jurisdiction.’ Robinson v. Quality Ins. Co., 633 F. Supp. 572, 574 (S.D. Ala. 1986). In such cases, the Court has the ‘duty to independently determine the propriety of jurisdiction.’ Id. at 575.”

11. Further, when the Court must determine whether the amount in controversy has been met for jurisdictional purposes, “the court must consider a claim for punitive damages “unless it is apparent to a legal certainty that such cannot be recovered.”” Lowe’s OK’d Used Cars, Inc. v. Acceptance, Ins. Co., 995 F.Supp. 1388, 1389 (M.D. Ala. 1998)(citing Holley Equipment Co. v. Credit Alliance Corp., 821 F.2d 1531 (11th Cir. 1987). Again, State Farm in no way concedes the fact that any wrong was committed, or that punitive damages are even appropriate in this case, (and, in fact, State Farm denies same.) However, it is plausible that a punitive damage award combined with the compensatory damage relief sought by Plaintiff could indeed exceed the jurisdictional amount. A copy of a recent judgment from the same county with the same attorney for the plaintiff, the same defense attorney and State Farm Life Insurance Company is attached as Exhibit "D." This judgment clearly shows a compensatory award well under the jurisdictional amount, when combined with punitive damages in Chambers County, Alabama, can and most likely will result in an amount which far exceeds $75,000.

12. If the above is reviewed in toto, Defendants avers that they have met the evidentiary burden set forth in Lowe's requiring that a "defendant may only establish removal jurisdiction by showing to a 'legal certainty that the plaintiff would not recover less than the federal jurisdictional amount if the plaintiff prevailed.'" Id. at 1389.

13. This petition is filed with this Court within 30 days of service of process on these Defendants.

14. This Court has original jurisdiction of the above-entitled action pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1332, and since Defendant State Farm Fire is not a resident citizen of the State of Alabama, wherein the above-entitled action is pending, removal of this action to this Court is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1441.

15. Notice of the Defendants' removal of the above-styled action has been given to the Clerk of the Circuit Court of Chambers County, Alabama, and to the Plaintiff, as required by 28 U.S.C. § 1446(d). See Exhibit "E" attached hereto.

WHEREFORE, Defendants have removed this action from the Circuit Court of Chambers County, Alabama, to the United States District Court for the Middle District of Alabama, Eastern Division.

Case No. _____

DEFENDANT DONNY HOLLEY'S MOTION TO DISMISS

COMES NOW Defendant (Donny Holley) and moves this Court to dismiss Count Three of Plaintiff's Complaint<sup>1</sup> pursuant to Rule 12(b)(6), Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. Count Three of Plaintiff's Complaint fails to state a claim against Holley upon which relief can be granted. Plaintiff can prove no set of facts in support of any allegation set forth in Count Three of the Complaint that would entitle him to relief against Holley. In support thereof, Defendant Holley states as follows:

INTRODUCTION

Plaintiff's Complaint arises from his submission of a claim to State Farm Fire and Casualty Company regarding storm damage to his home. Plaintiff's Complaint alleges Defendant Holley negligently or wantonly procured the policy of insurance on Plaintiff's home. Plaintiff's Complaint also alleges breach of contract and bad faith against Defendant State Farm. As will be demonstrated below, even when this allegation is viewed most strongly in Plaintiff's favor, Defendant Holley contends that there is no circumstance which would entitle Plaintiff to relief.

II. ARGUMENT

A. MOTION TO DISMISS STANDARD

On May 21, 2007, the United States Supreme Court issued Bell Atlantic v. Twombly, 550 U.S. ____ (2007), 127 S.Ct. 1955, 2007 WL 1461066 (U.S.), effectively redefining the standard for a Rule 12(b)(6) Motion to Dismiss. Prior to Twombly, the standard for analyzing a motion to dismiss was set forth in Conley v. Gibson, 355 U.S. 42(1957). Conley stated that "[a] complaint should not be dismissed for failure to state a claim unless it appears beyond doubt that the plaintiff can prove no set of facts in support of his claim which would entitle him to relief." Id. at 45-46. In Twombly, the Court revisited Conley and set forth the following standard for motions to dismiss:

While a complaint attacked by a Rule 12(b)(6) motion to dismiss does not need detailed factual allegations ... a plaintiff's obligation to provide the 'grounds' of his 'entitlement to relief' requires more than labels and conclusions, and a formulaic recitation of the elements of the cause of action will not do ... Factual allegations must be enough to raise a right to relief above the speculative level ... on the assumption that all the allegations in the complaint are true (even if doubtful in fact).

Twombly, 550 U.S. at 1964-68. The Court further noted that the plaintiff must present plausible grounds to state a claim for relief, specifically stating that “something beyond a mere possibility of loss causation” must be pled to satisfy Rule 8. Id. at 1968-69 (citing Dura Pharmaceuticals Inc. v. Broudo, 544 U.S. 336 (2005)). Even though Twombly was an anti-trust case, the Court expressly rejected the previous “no set of facts” standard enumerated by Conley, supra, a labor law case, thereby suggesting this new standard for deciding motions to dismiss is applicable to all cases, not merely those sounding in anti-trust. The Court’s earlier standard was more generous to the plaintiff in that a Motion to Dismiss would only be granted if “no set of facts” could support a plaintiff’s claims. The emphasis on the “no set of facts” language encouraged denial of a motion to dismiss on any facts presented by a plaintiffs regardless of their implausibility. In discrediting the Conley opinion Justice Souter wrote:

[T]here is no need to pile up further citations that Conley’s ‘no set of facts’ language has been questioned, criticized and explained away long enough .... [A]fter puzzling the profession for 50 years, this famous observation has earned its retirement. The phrase is best forgotten as an incomplete, negative gloss on an accepted pleading standard: once a claim has been stated adequately, it may be supported by any set of facts consistent with the allegations in the complaint... Conley, then, described the breadth of opportunity to prove what an adequate complaint claims, not the minimum standard of adequate pleading to govern a complaint's survival.

Id. at 1969. Twombly did not seek to heighten the pleading standards but required “only enough facts to state a claim to relief that is plausible on its face.” Id. at 1974.

Because the Plaintiff in this case has failed to plead his claims against Defendant

Holley “across the line from conceivable to plausible”, the allegations against Holley are due to be dismissed. Id. at 1974.

B. ALLEGATIONS AGAINST HOLLEY

A review of all the allegations against Holley in Plaintiff's Complaint reveals why the Complaint fails to state a claim against Holley. First, Plaintiff asserts Defendant Holley procured a homeowner's insurance policy for Plaintiff's home and that State Farm issued the homeowners policy which specifically provided coverage for wind and/or hail damage. (Complaint, ¶ 6). These assertions confirm Plaintiff wanted a policy which provided coverage for wind and/or hail damage, that Defendant Holley procured said policy and that State Farm indeed issued said policy to Plaintiff. Plaintiff then claims in Count Three that Defendant Holley negligently or wantonly procured the policy of insurance because State Farm did not pay for wind and hail damage but Holley informed Plaintiff the policy he purchased provided coverage for wind and/or hail. Since Plaintiff desired a homeowners policy which provided coverage for wind and/or hail damage and Defendant Holley procured a homeowners policy for Plaintiff which provided said coverage, Defendant Holley was not negligent or wanton in the procurement of the policy. The State Farm homeowners policy issued to Plaintiff specifically provides coverage for the accidental direct physical loss to the insured property which includes wind and/or hail damage:<sup>2</sup>

SECTION I - LOSSES INSURED

COVERAGE A - DWELLING

We insure for accidental direct physical loss to the property described in Coverage A, except as provided in SECTION I - LOSSES NOT INSURED.

(Exhibit "A," p. 7). Since Defendant Holley procured the exact policy Plaintiff requested then Plaintiff has wholly failed to assert a plausible claim of negligent or wanton procurement against Defendant Holley.

Plaintiff appears to suggest in his Complaint that because State Farm allegedly <sup>2</sup> Attached as Exhibit "A" is a copy of Plaintiff's homeowners policy. The attachment of said policy declaration page to this motion to dismiss does not convert said motion into a motion for summary judgment. Deerman v. Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corp., 955 F.Supp. 1393, 1397 (N.D. Ala. 1997). See also Holyfield v. Moates, 565 So.2d 186 (Ala. 1990).

denied his claim for wind and/or hail damage then the only reason for said denial was because the policy did not provide coverage for said type of loss; i.e. Holley negligently or wantonly procured his policy. (Complaint, ¶ 17) To the contrary, as set forth in the policy language above, the Plaintiff's policy of insurance does provide insurance benefits for wind and/or hail damage if that type of loss actually occurred. State Farm's alleged denial of Plaintiff's insurance claim does not automatically equate to negligent or wanton procurement on the part of Holley. Based on the plain language of the Complaint, Plaintiff has failed to assert a plausible claim of negligent or wanton procurement.

The Court in Twombly was clear that the new standard now requires the trial court to consider the likelihood of the allegations, to not only weigh the allegations against the law, but also against logic. See generally Twombly. The new standard requires the Court to determine whether enough facts have been stated in the Plaintiff's Complaint to conclude that it is plausible that the Plaintiff is entitled to relief, not merely that relief is remotely possible. Id. at 1968 - 1969. In the case sub judice, Plaintiff's allegations fail to present plausible evidence to even suggest why he is entitled to relief. While Plaintiff may argue his claim against Holley is remotely possible, the claim is wholly implausible, thereby warranting dismissal under the newly established standard set forth in Twombly. "When the allegations in a complaint, however true, could not raise a claim of entitlement to relief, 'this basic deficiency should be ... exposed at the point of minimum expenditure of time and money by the parties and the Court.'" Id. at 1966. Count Three of Plaintiff's Complaint against Defendant Holley should be dismissed for failure to state a claim upon which relief can be granted.

CONCLUSION

Plaintiff's claims against Defendant Holley for negligent or wanton procurement are due to be dismissed as the Complaint shows on its face that Holley in fact procured a policy which covers wind and hail damage, and, therefore, cannot be liable for negligent failure to procure. Plaintiff's Complaint does not allege that State Farm denied the claim because there was wind and hail and that the policy does not cover wind and hail. The fact State Farm denied the claim -- if it did -- does not change the policy terms and does not remove coverage for wind and hail from the policy. The denial -- if it happened -- subjects State Farm to an action for breach of contract and, if warranted, bad faith; but the denial -- if it happened -- does not subject Holley to an action for negligent/wanton failure to procure when the policy clearly provides that coverage. Therefore, Holley is due to be dismissed.

Your coverage amount....

It is up to you to choose the coverages and limits that meet your needs. We recommend that you purchase a coverage limit equal to the estimated replacement cost of your home. Replacement cost estimates are available from building contractors and replacement cost appraisers, or, your agent can provide an estimate from Xactware, Inc.® using information you provide about your home. We can accept the type of estimate you choose as long as it provides a reasonable level of detail about your home. State Farm® does not guarantee that any estimate will be the actual future cost to rebuild your home. Higher limits are available at higher premiums. Lower limits are also available, which if selected may make certain coverages unavailable to you. We encourage you to periodically review your coverages and limits with your agent and to notify us of any changes or additions to your home.

Discounts and Rating - The longer you are insured with State Farm, and the fewer claims you have, the lower your premium. For policyholders insured by State Farm for three or more years, the Claim Free Discount Plan provides a premium discount if you have not had any claims considered for rating in the most recent three-year period since becoming insured with State Farm. Premium adjustments under the Claim Record Rating Plans are based on the number of years you have been insured with State Farm and on the number of claims that we consider for rating. Depending on the Plan(s) that applies in your state/province, claims considered for rating generally include claims resulting in a paid loss and may include weather-related claims. Additionally, depending on your state/province's plan and your tenure with State Farm, any claims with your prior insurer resulting in property damage or injury may also influence your premium. For further information about whether a Claim Free Discount is in effect in your state/province, the Claim Record Rating Plan that applies in your state/province, and the claims we consider for rating, please contact your State Farm agent.

SECTION I AND SECTION II - CONDITIONS

Right to Inspect is added:

Right to Inspect. We have the right but are not obligated to make inspections and surveys at any time, give you reports on conditions we find and recommend changes. Any inspections, surveys, reports or recommendations relate only to insurability and the premiums to be charged.

- c. warrant that conditions are safe or healthful; or

EARTHQUAKE AND VOLCANIC EXPLOSION ENDORSEMENT

1. SECTION I - LOSSES NOT INSURED references to earthquake and volcanic explosion are deleted. Such insurance as is afforded by Section I of the policy is extended to insure for accidental direct physical loss caused by earthquake or volcanic explosion.
2. We do not insure under this endorsement for loss caused by or resulting from any earthquake or volcanic explosion that begins before the inception of this endorsement.

But, if this endorsement replaces earthquake insurance that excludes loss that occurs after the expiration of the policy, we will pay for loss or damage by earthquake, or volcanic explosion that occurs on or after the inception of this endorsement, if the series of earthquake shocks or volcanic explosions began within 72 hours prior to the inception of this insurance.
3. All earthquake shocks or volcanic explosions that occur within any 72-hour period will constitute a single loss. The expiration of this policy will not reduce the 72-hour period.

4. Deductible: The deductible for loss caused by earthquake or volcanic explosion is the amount determined by applying the deductible percentage (%) shown in the Declarations, separately, to each of the following:

- a. the total COVERAGE A - DWELLING limit shown in the Declarations;
- b. the total DWELLING EXTENSION limit shown in the Declarations; and
- c. the total COVERAGE B - PERSONAL PROPERTY limit shown in the Declarations.

We will pay only that portion of the loss which exceeds the separate deductibles calculated above. The minimum deductible for each occurrence is $250.

All other policy provisions apply.

AMENDATORY SUBROGATION CONDITION ENDORSEMENT*SECTION I AND SECTION II - CONDITIONS

Subrogation is replaced with the following:

- a. If any insured to or for whom we make payment under this policy has rights to recover damages from another, those rights are automatically transferred to us to the extent of our payment. - a. give immediate notice to us or our agent. Also notify the police if the loss is caused by theft. Also notify the credit card company or bank if the loss involves a credit card or bank fund transfer card;
- b. protect the property from further damage or loss, make reasonable and necessary temporary repairs required to protect the property, keep an accurate record of repair expenditures;

If either makes a written demand for appraisal, each shall select a competent, disinterested appraiser. Each shall notify the other of the appraiser's identity within 20 days of receipt of the written demand. The two appraisers shall then select a competent, impartial umpire. If the two appraisers are unable to agree upon an umpire within 15 days, you or we can ask a judge of a court of record in the state where the residence premises is located to select an umpire. a fee. This applies regardless of any other provision of this policy.

COMPLAINT

1. Wyatt Finch is an individual over the age of nineteen (19) years and a resident of Chambers County, Alabama at the time of the occurrence made the basis of this suit.
2. State Farm Fire and Casualty Company (hereinafter referred to as "State Farm") is a corporation doing business in Chambers County, Alabama.
3. Donny Holley, (hereinafter referred to as "Mr. Holley"), individually and as an agent, representative and employee of State Farm is a resident of Chambers County, Alabama and does business in Chambers County, Alabama.
4. The real property made the basis of this litigation is situated in Chambers County, Alabama. The actions complained of took place in Chambers County, Alabama.

FACTS

5. Prior to April 19, 2006, defendant, Mr. Holley procured, for valuable consideration, a policy of homeowners insurance for the plaintiff for his real property located at 25 Gaylor Street, Valley, Alabama 36854. Defendant, State Farm, wrote said policy of insurance. Additionally, said policy of insurance provided coverage for the "dwelling," including wind damage and hail damage.
6. The contract of insurance, procured by Mr. Holley, through State Farm, obligated State Farm to provide insurance coverage on the plaintiff's dwellings in the event of a covered loss.
7. On or about April 19, 2006, the plaintiffs' home was damaged by wind and hail.
8. State farm sent an adjuster to the Plaintiffs' property who notified the plaintiffs that their roof could be fixed with patching only. Said adjuster refused to pay for the true cost of repairs to the Plaintiffs' property.

9. State Farm sent an adjuster to the plaintiff's properties who then wrote an estimate indicating that the plaintiff had suffered no damage.
10. The plaintiff then obtained an several estimates showing extensive damage to the plaintiff's properties and submitted them to the adjuster for review and consideration.
11. At that time, the adjuster amended his estimate and offered to pay for a portion of the plaintiff's covered damages but failed to pay the full value of the plaintiff's claims or to offer the full value of the plaintiff's claims.
12. The actions of the adjuster and State Farm were part of a pattern and practice of underpaying or denying valid claims as a cost saving measure to the defendant State Farm.
13. State Farm engaged in a pattern and practice to victimize other similarly situated individuals in the same manner as it did the plaintiff.

COUNT I

14. State Farm entered into a contract with the plaintiff. State Farm breached said contract. Pursuant to the terms and conditions of the plaintiff's contract, wind damage and hail damage are covered perils. The plaintiff's home became damaged by wind and hail, State Farm refused to extend payment for the damage, and State Farm breached its contract with the plaintiffs.

COUNT II

15. State Farm had a duty imposed by law to exercise good faith and fair dealings in the performance of the contractual obligations under the terms of the aforesaid policy of insurance. This duty was breached, either in that State Farm had no arguable basis for denying the claim for wind and hail damage or in that it failed to adequately investigate said claim, and denied it without determining whether there was any arguable basis for denying it. This conduct amounts to bad faith and unfair dealings.
16. State Farm acted in bad faith.

COUNT III

17. Mr. Holley negligently or wantonly procured the policy of insurance on the plaintiff's home. When the policy was procured, Mr. Holley personally inspected the home. When Mr. Holley sold the policy of insurance to the plaintiff, he negligently or wantonly informed the plaintiff that wind and hail damage were covered perils. According to State Farm, it was not.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs request that the jury selected to hear this case render a verdict in their favor, and against each defendant, separately and severally, and that it award damages to them in an amount which will adequately compensate them for the injuries and damages sustained due to the defendants' actions. Also, on the basis of the foregoing, Plaintiffs request that a jury be selected to hear this case and render a verdict for plaintiffs, and against the defendants, and that it award damages to plaintiffs in an amount which will adequately reflect the enormity of the defendant's wrong, and which will effectively prevent other similarly caused acts. Further, Plaintiffs request that the Court enter judgment consistent with the jury's verdict, and that it also award the plaintiffs interest from the date of judgment and the costs incurred by the Court in managing this lawsuit.

Plaintiff,

State Farm Insurance
Corporation and Donny
Holley,
Defendants.CIVIL ACTION NO:
CV 01-207ORDER ON POST-TRIAL MOTIONS

This matter came before the Court on a special setting to hear the post-trial motions filed by the defendants in this action on January 10, 2006.

HISTORY

George Alford instituted suit against State Farm and one of its Chambers County agents, Donny Holley on August 23, 2001. The underlying claims in the lawsuit were for breach of contract, conversion and suppression. Thereafter discovery was undertaken and the matter was set for trial in the Circuit Court of Chambers County beginning on September 12, 2005. On that day a jury was qualified, sworn, struck, and impaneled without objection. This Court notes that at the close of the plaintiff's evidence the Court dismissed the counts claiming breach of contract and conversion and allowed the claim of suppression to go forward. On September 14, 2005, the duly empaneled jury delivered a verdict awarding compensatory damages against Donny Holley in the amount of $20,989.65 and punitive damages in the amount of $20,989.65 and awarding $30,000.00 compensatory damages and $970,000.00 in punitive damages against State Farm Life Insurance Company. All of the defendants timely filed post-trial motions on October 13, 2005. The defendants motion was styled as "Renewal of motion for judgment as a matter of law and alternative motion for new trial and alternative motion to alter, amend or vacate the Judgment".

The Defendants' Renewal of Motion for Judgment as a Matter of Law and alternative Motion for New Trial and alternative Motion to Alter, Amend or Vacate the Verdict is hereby Denied.
